FLIGHTS

We have, in our humble opinion, put together some rather magnificent Flights, each one has a story to tell, some are more complex and convoluted than others, but all offer you an adventure into the dark art of distilling, we recommend drinking them in the order they are laid out

THE TOURER

DALWHINNIE 15YO, GLENLIVET FOUNDER'S, & LAPHROAIG 10YO

A trip around Scotland is first on the list with Highland, Speyside & Islay all being featured, approachable for the novice, a familiar warmth and homecoming to the experienced

£22

THE 'AYES' HAVE IT

WATERFORD ARGOT, TALISKER DISTILLER'S, & LAGAVULIN 16YO

As the name suggests we start in Ireland, before heading to Island and then landing in Islay, a spiced beginning, peppery middle and a peaty knockout, not for the faint-hearted

£32

BRAVE, THE NEW WORLD?

YAMAZAKI RESERVE, STARWARD OCTAVE, & STAUNING KAOS

A world tour awaits this brave adventurer, Japan to begin where all the best whiskies are being made at present, then down to Australia for some Shiraz inspired sipping and back to Europe and Denmark for a smoky bourbon-esque finish

£34

THREE OF A KIND

BALVENIE 14YO CARIBBEAN, BALVENIE 12YO, & BALVENIE 16YO

This fantastic Speyside Distillery is doing wonderful, exciting malts and hence why it is last of our flights, to the connoisseur this is about as good as it gets from one region. We start with molasses, oak & fruit flavours that give way to sherry and sweet vanilla & honey and finish with apricot, almonds and cedar, truly a work of art
